

CONNECTING US KEYNOTE

CONNECTION IS ONE OF OUR DEEPEST HUMAN NEEDS

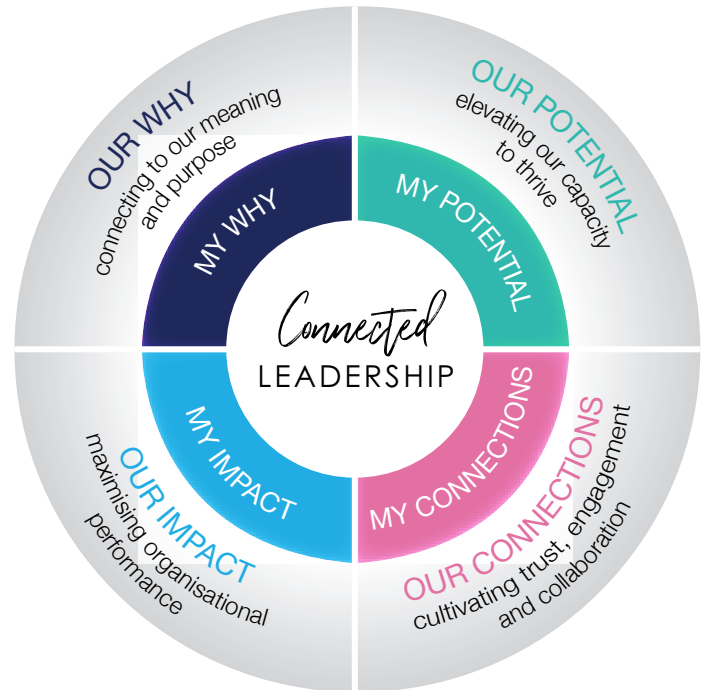

When it exists, when people are truly connected, it improves performance, engagement, wellbeing and our capacity to collaborate and innovate.

Connection is dependent on the quality of our relationships, our conversations, and the depth of our trust. It is developed and deepened by our ability to empathise, to listen intently, and to engage.

In this session you will:

1. Experience the power of connection;
2. Practice how to harness the power of conversation to transform and co-create;
3. Identify ways to deepen trust and unlock your capacity for Real Connection.
4. Have fun!

Be prepared to walk away wanting to share great conversations, to collaborate and be energised about the possibilities Real Connection will bring to your teams' leadership and performance.

'For those who value real connection, engagement and a desire to walk away energised to exercise leadership in a more meaningful way.'

'Michelle's own leadership and executive experience allows her to weave real stories into her speaking and ensure she is relatable, credible and inspiring to a broad range of audiences.'

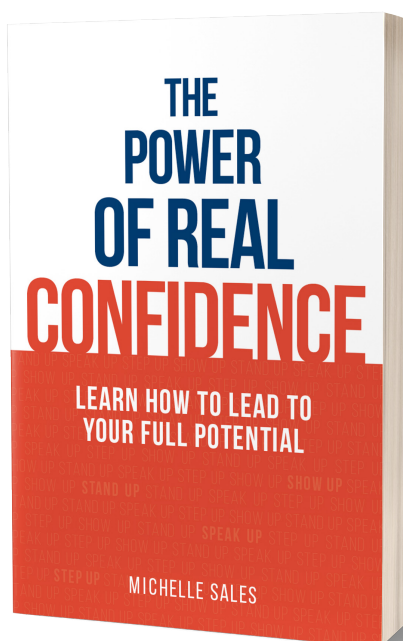

'Michelle was engaged by our company to present at our Annual Training and Team Building Day themed around Empowerment and Leadership. Her presentation was both inspirational and practical on how to improve our impact by working as a team We all came away with a newfound confidence on how our individual leadership styles can have impact in our workplace.'

About Michelle

Michelle has the ability to facilitate outcomes well beyond what leaders and executive teams ever imagined was possible.

With a passion for leadership, Michelle brings authenticity and warmth as much as a hard-hitting capacity to hold people to account.

She has helped thousands of leaders and their teams learn to show up as the best version of themselves, to build confidence and maximise their leadership performance and impact.
